AEC Electronic Checklist
Document No. AEC-011

Section II

Limitations

1. The AEC Electronic Checklist is a stand alone system and the FAA Approved AFM or POH for the aircraft for which the AEC unit is installed, takes precedence of all operating information. It is the responsibility of the aircraft operator that the AEC Checklist is programmed properly with all of the current information and revisions from the AFM or POH. This unit is to be used for advisory information only.
